

Is our society all about the 'love for money' as encapsulated in the phrase "No money, No talk!" What is the Buddhist attitude to money and material wealth? In this issue of Cosmic, we take a look at money, its relationship to our lives and the meaning of good fortune and benefit – from the perspective of Nichiren Buddhism.

Contents

February 2010

6 Money is considered legal tender it has great power: food, clothing, shelter, comfort, status and at times even your life can be had for money...However, the value of money is determined not solely by the amount you possess but also by your state of life, which determines how you make use of money.

28 After obtaining his PhD from Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, Stanley Yap Teck Lee returned to Malaysia with the desire to contribute and share his knowledge on economy and finance with the public.

18 February 11, 2010 marks the 110th anniversary of the birth of Josei Toda, Soka Gakkai 2nd president. Based on the teachings of Nichiren Daishonin, Toda developed a methodology of personal transformation called "Human Revolution" that has become the foundation underlying the SGI.

48 Sincerely praying to show actual proof of the greatness of the Law has given Chua Sung Chin the power to break through her self-limiting shell and propel her on new career heights.

Editorial

- 4 Dialogues Based On Our Shared Humanity
5 Dialog Berasaskan Kemanusiaan Kita Bersama

Feature

- 6 Essay: What is the Buddhist Attitude To Money and Material Wealth?
by Florence Milesko-Graham
- 8 Essay: Money Stuff
by Gerry Thompson
- 10 Essay: Money and Myths
by Seko Ong
- 13 Question-and-Answer: Money, Benefit and Good Fortune
- 18 Josei Toda: Second President of Soka Gakkai
- "Makiguchi is Dead!" The Three Presidents and the Making of the Soka Gakkai International
 - Buddha as Life: Josei Toda and the Birth of Modern Buddhism
 - The Hidden Claws: Removing the Causes of Mass Destruction
by Clark Strand

- 28 Experience: Determined to Contribute to Society
Stanley Yap Teck Lee, Kuala Lumpur

32 Cosmickid

Sudut Cerita: Cenderamata Meteor (2)
oleh Presiden SGI Daisaku Ikeda

36 News

46 SGI News from Around the World

Experience

- 48 Winning Amidst Endless Trials
Chua Sung Chin, Petaling Jaya

- 51 The Power of True Prayers
Mak Weng Kin, Selangor

- 54 Braving All Challenges With Faith
Sherine Ng Siew Fung, Kuala Lumpur

- 56 Postcard from Tokyo
Winter Always Turns To Spring by Chong Giat Wuan

- 57 Parenting
Nurturing Children to Develop the Habit of Learning Independently

- 58 Culturewatch
The Road by Dinesh Chandren

- 60 Art
Tabung (By Dzulkifli Buyong (1948 – 2004) by Leong Tuck Yee

- 62 From SGI President
Winter Always Turns to Spring

- 64 Mentor and Disciple
Youth – Inherit the Gakkai Spirit!

Editor

Liu Cheng Choong

Associate Editor

Looi Chee Choong

Contributors

Chong Giat Wuan

Dinesh Chandren

Leong Tuck Yee

Seko Ong

Translators

Leslie Foo See Jork

Tay Biby

Designer

Foo Keh Chong

Photographer

Lum Heng

Subscriptions

Chai Siew Lin

Distribution

Lin Kok Keen

We Want To Hear From You

If you have any questions, comments or wish to send in an article, an experience, photographs or an activity report, please contact:

Associate Editor, COSMIC.

Wisma Kebudayaan SGM,

243, Jalan Bukit Bintang,

55100 Kuala Lumpur,

Malaysia.

Tel: 03-2141 2003

Email: publication@sgm.org.my