Courageous Successors

English translation of Chinese lyrics

Young Eagles spread their wings, soaring across the vast blue sky.
Wise and courageous, bold and unflagging

We are the vanguards of kosen-rufu
Today again, we resolutely rise

For the happiness of all humankind Unleashing our infinite life-force

We are the pillars of the future
Bearing a noble mission

To strive for the victory of justice Bringing forth courage to overcome all obstacles

Undaunted by devilish functions Making a vow to walk the eternal path of mentor and disciple Turning war into peace
We are the Courageous Successors
