Youth with a Glorious Crown

English translation of Chinese lyrics

Everyone has their own dreams

Everyone faces different challenges

Bathing in the light of the sun, flowers bloom freely throughout the land

The bright and cheerful Queens of Happiness, brimming forever with vitality

Spreading their young and beautiful wings

Soaring freely in the realm of philosophy

It is the heart that matters, forever unwavering

Creating a glorious and brilliant castle of happiness coming from the heart

The sun, moon, and stars pierce through the sky of darkness

Living a vibrant and splendid life, unflinching in the face of stormy weather

You and I, elegant and divine, open up a new path for peace

Because of you, the world is spurred into a dance of new hope
